MOTTO OF LATVIAN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE LESSONS

The Word Read - A Path to Self and the World!

IMPORTANCE OF READING

- ✓ Effectively develops knowledge and personal potential;
- ✓ Increases self-esteem.

PROMOTION OF READING IN WORK WITH TEXT

- ✓ Read an excerpt from Regina Ezer's autumn painting "Elegy (October)" and find out what artistic and linguistic devices help conjure the mood of autumn!
- ✓ Tell us if your autumn mood matches the one depicted in the excerpt!
- ✓ Draw your autumn feelings on an A4 piece of paper!

Leaves are the souls of trees. They are almost dead now, and on windless nights they talk quietly to each other in different, old voices now. If we don't look at the bare tree tops, but look above, above, and above them, it seems that this summer still sovereignly rules over us and over everything.

In the spring the apple trees were so wild that they soared to the sky in the ecstasy of bloom. The bloom and the madness seemed to have no boundaries or end. But now, sadly, it turns out that everything can be too much - even beauty.

With eyes big and full of wonder, bright as the splendor of the sky, the apples stare at anyone who glimpses them in passing [...]. They are still very beautiful, and perhaps their chief beauty is their doom.

THE BENEFITS OF READING CHALLENGES

- ✓ relating text to personal experience,
- ✓ learning to see the text from multiple positions (literal, figurative).

EXPERIENCE FROM PARTICIPATION IN THE PROJECT

- ✓ In Lithuania - a national commitment to reading - a new mother receives the first book to read to her child upon discharge from the hospital.
- ✓ Efforts to encourage people to read by organizing reading festivals, attracting both young and established writers, musicians, and attraction organizers.
- ✓ The ability to get excited about the idea that reading is stylish and modern.
